TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO FOREIGN INVESTMENT MANDATE
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. This is a mandate (“Mandate”) whereby the Client appoints Peregrine Equities Proprietary Limited (“Peregrine”) as his duly authorised agent to purchase and sell and to enter into any transaction in financial instruments which are listed or traded primarily outside the Republic of South Africa (“Foreign Investments”), including the exchange of the Investment Amount for Foreign Investments in accordance with the terms set out in this Mandate. It is specifically recorded that this is a non-discretionary mandate and that Peregrine may only act in accordance with instructions from the Client. 2. The Client hereby acknowledges that in terms of the exchange control regulations concerning foreign investment by private individuals (natural persons) resident in South Africa, the Client is entitled to invest a maximum amount limited by the South African Reserve Bank (“SARB”) outside the Rand common monetary area. 3. The Client agrees that in executing this Mandate, Peregrine may act through a third party of its choice. Execution orders may be passed to overseas branches or associate companies of Peregrine and other intermediate brokers (selected at Peregrine’s discretion) for execution. Orders are subject to the terms and conditions of any intermediate broker and to the applicable exchange rules and regulations. 4. The Client acknowledges that each foreign market exchange has its own order execution and best execution policies that the Client must adhere and comply to.

5. Where the Client has elected the Investment Type above to be "Own Foreign Allowance" his Foreign Investments will be effected as follows:
 - When utilising his individual foreign investment allowance, the Client hereby warrants that any funds placed with Peregrine for investment in terms of this Mandate do not exceed his personal limit as allowed by the SARB. The Client acknowledges that Peregrine may only transfer the funds of private individuals (natural persons) on presentation of a valid Tax Clearance Certificate (in respect of Foreign Investments) issued by the South African Revenue Services or when provided with valid documentation on his foreign allowance from the authorized user;
 - When utilising his single discretionary allowance as allowed by the SARB, the Client hereby warrants that any funds placed with Peregrine for investment in terms of this Mandate do not exceed his personal limit as allowed by the SARB and the Client understands that his single discretionary allowance includes funds as stipulated by the SARB.
6. Where the Client has elected the Investment Type above to be "Asset Swap" and that his Foreign Investments will be effected through the institutional investment allowance of Peregrine, Peregrine may from time to time be required to liquidate some of the Client's Foreign Investments and repatriate the proceeds to South Africa in order to comply with Exchange Control Regulations regarding foreign portfolio investments thresholds set by SARB or if applicable, the Regulation 28 prudential requirements as laid down by the Pension Fund Act. In this respect, the Client authorises Peregrine to do all things necessary to comply with the SARB exchange control regulations or the Pension Fund Act prudential requirements, as may be amended from time to time.
7. Where the Client has utilised the foreign investment allowance of Peregrine (Investment Type of "Asset Swap"), the Client agrees to comply with the following conditions:
 - Under no circumstances may the Client have direct access to the offshore assets and the offshore assets cannot be registered in the name of the Client. The only recourse that the Client has to offshore assets is a domestic payment in ZAR currency;
 - The Client is not allowed to enter into any derivative transactions that give the Client directional exposure. The Client is permitted to hedge currency risk and investment risk in the foreign market.
8. Peregrine shall furnish the Client with a periodic report showing details of any change in the Foreign Investments held on behalf of the Client, including any cash held on his behalf at the date of the report. Such details shall include the period for which the Foreign Investments are held, by whom they are held and where, and the amount of interest paid in respect of the cash held on behalf of the Client. The report will be sent electronically to the Client. The Client may also request to receive a physical copy delivered to its postal address or faxed to the preferred facsimile number.
9. To facilitate such transactions as this Mandate provides for, the Client hereby authorises Peregrine to have an interest as principal in any transaction for the purchase and sale of Foreign Investments on behalf of the Client.
10. The Client undertakes that before any funds are remitted outside the Rand common monetary area, that he will have completed the necessary forms and declarations for SARB and the South African Revenue Service purposes. The Client warrants that these forms will have been correctly completed and indemnifies Peregrine should any claim be made against Peregrine in the event that such forms have not been correctly completed. The Client understands that trading in Foreign Investments on the Client's behalf will not be permitted without the required foreign currency being on deposit with the elected custodian, the completion and submission of this Mandate and the duly authorised exchange control forms.

11. The Client acknowledges that any Foreign Investment made by Peregrine on the Client's behalf will be placed with a custodian appointed by Peregrine. All investments other than cash or bearer instruments will be registered in the nominee name of Peregrine on the Client's behalf and for the Client's benefit, subject to applicable legislation. Peregrine shall ensure that the custodian with whom the Client's Foreign Investments will be deposited for safe custody purposes shall be a member of a recognised securities authority and shall be subject to the relevant laws and regulations. Such custodian shall, subject to any agreement to the contrary between the Client and Peregrine:
- Bear responsibility for receiving any proxies, notices, reports or other communications relating to such Foreign Investment and for communicating promptly such receipt to Peregrine. Neither the custodian nor its nominees or agents shall vote upon or in respect of any Foreign Investments nor shall they execute any form of proxy to vote thereon or give any consent or take any action except on receipt of instructions from Peregrine;
 - Collect on the Client's behalf all interest and dividends and all other income and payments in respect of foreign securities held on the Client's account and credit the same to the Client's account with the custodian or the account of Peregrine with the custodian as the Client's authorised agent, which account shall be separate from the assets of Peregrine or those of the custodian;
 - Present for payment all Foreign Investments which are called, redeemed or otherwise become payable and all coupons and other income items which call for payment upon presentation and shall credit any such receipt to the above mentioned account;
 - Exchange Foreign Investments where such exchange is purely required for administrative reasons;
 - Inform Peregrine timeously of all corporate actions relating to the Client's holdings and shall take instructions from Peregrine;
 - Whenever notification of rights entitlement or a fractional interest resulting from a rights issue, dividend in specie or share split is received for Foreign Investments held on the Client's account and such rights entitlement or fractional interest bears an expiry date, if instructions are not received timeously, sell such rights entitlement or fractional interest and credit the above mentioned account with the net proceeds of such sale.
12. Peregrine and the Client shall be entitled to terminate this Mandate by notice in writing to the other party of not less than 30 (thirty) calendar days.
13. Peregrine has and maintain, at its own expense, insurance, Professional Indemnity and Fidelity cover (as prescribed by the Registrar of Financial Services Providers in terms of FAIS) in respect of any liability which may be incurred by Peregrine. Peregrine shall on request from the Client furnish the Client with written confirmation of the amount of such insurance cover.

RISK DISCLOSURE

Foreign Investments contains unique risks that may affect the value of the Client's investments. By signing this risk disclosure the Client acknowledges that he is aware of the risks associated with investing in Foreign Investments.

The risks identified herein are not intended to be exhaustive and, where appropriate, the Client should consult his own legal, tax and financial experts to identify and understand all the risks inherent in Foreign Investments.:

- The value of the investment and the income derived therefrom may fluctuate and the Client may not recover the initial investment;
- Investments are exposed to different tax regimes that may change without warning and it may influence investment returns;
- Exchange control measures may change in the country of investment and it may influence accessibility to the invested capital;
- Currency risk is the potential risk of loss from fluctuating foreign exchange rates when the Client has exposure to Foreign Investments. Exchange rate movements can be volatile and are difficult to predict. Should the Rand exchange rate strengthen against the exchange rate of the foreign currency in which the Client's money is invested, it may create a loss of capital or reduced returns when the money is repatriated back to South Africa, even though the value of the Foreign Investment may have increased when valued in the foreign currency.

- Leverage magnifies gains and losses experienced by the Client and could cause the value of investments to be subject to wider fluctuations than would be the case if no leverage were used. As a result, a relatively small market movement can result in substantial losses which may exceed the original investment. The interest expense and other costs incurred in connection with the use of leverage or borrowing may not be recovered by an appreciation in the investments purchased or carried.
- The stock market is capable of large movements due to economic, political and other factors;
- Fixed interest investments are affected by actual or expected changes in levels in interest rates;
- Getting access to investment performance information may be more difficult than South African based investments;
- The Client may be exposed to operational risk. Operational risk is the risk of a loss arising from inadequate or failed processes, people and systems or external events. It also represents the potential loss arising from inadequacies in, or failures of system and controls for, monitoring and quantifying the risks and contractual obligations associated with financial instruments transactions and the recording and valuing thereof.
- The Client may be exposed to event risk. The value of investments are linked to general economic conditions including, but not limited to, changing supply and demand relationships, government trade and fiscal policies, national and international political and economic events, natural disasters, war and terrorist attacks and changes in exchange rates and interest rates, that may affect the level and volatility of prices.
- Assessing the relative risk of any of the above factors is highly subjective and, in line with market conditions, can change over time in response to specific events or revised social or economic forecasts. It is accordingly not possible to lay down precise guidelines for the measurement of risk or the potential impact, whether positive or negative, upon an investment portfolio. Investments in foreign countries may involve other risks, such as currency fluctuations, different accounting standards to those recognised in South Africa, and often, limited information.
- The Client acknowledges that client assets may be held on their behalf via an omnibus account.
